Leaders in the Making is a weekly after-school workshop for 6th, 7th and 8th grade students that focuses on Leadership, DC natural ecology, World Cultures, Making an Impact, and our Global Environment. Each of these themes is explored in a variety of ways, including in-class discussions, field trips, community service, guest speakers, and group projects.

The Leaders in the Making program runs from September 16th to May 28th with students meeting weekly at the FLOC office (1763 Columbia St, NW) in Adams Morgan. To find out more about this exciting program, please contact Aaron Schreiber at (202) 349 -3507 or aschreiber-stainthor@floc.org
