

For Love of Children

Teach. Empower. Transform

When: April 28, 2010

7:30 am - 8:30am

Where: AED (Academy for Educational Development)
Conference Center

1825 Connecticut Avenue, NW
Dupont Circle Metro (Red Line)
Street Parking and T Street Entrance Lot

To RSVP: ehaga@floc.org or 202-349-3500

www.floc.org

Will You Attend?

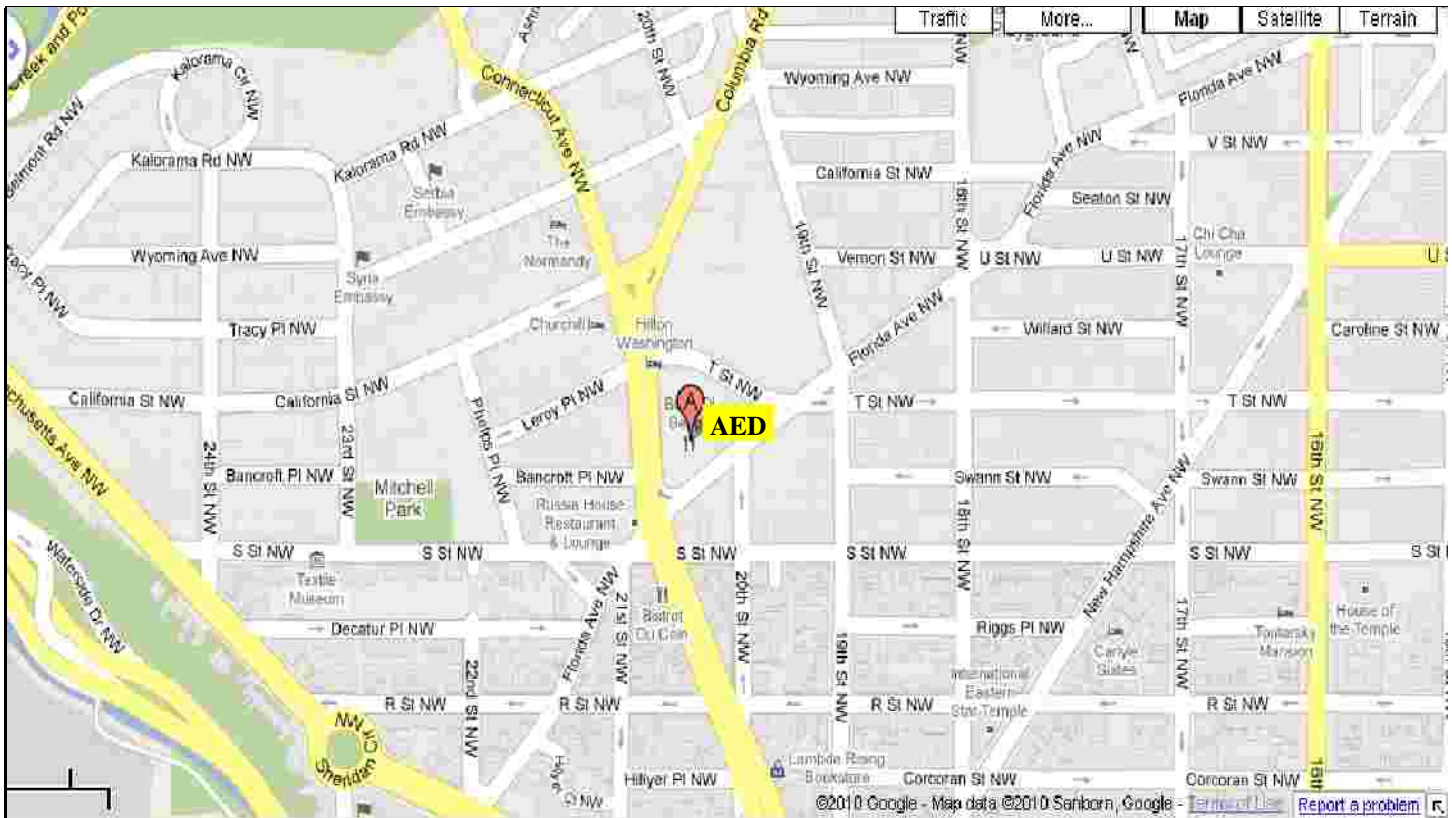

FLOC's Annual "Building Our Children's Future" Fundraising Event

For Love of Children (FLOC) invites you to this once-a-year gathering.

- Meet students from the District who are beating the odds and succeeding as learners, leaders and citizens.
- Learn about FLOC's long-term investments in out-of-school time resources that support success.
- Explore how you can impact FLOC's mission to Teach, Empower and Transform children and young people.

For Love of Children (FLOC) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization whose mission is to provide young children and high-risk youth with the resources to achieve educational and personal success through a continuum of educational services that prepares them to become confident, life-long learners and contributing members of their communities.

AED (Academy for Educational Development)
 1825 Connecticut Avenue, NW
 Cross Streets: Florida Avenue & Connecticut Avenue

Metro: Dupont Circle (Red Line) : North Exit
 Parking: street or on-site garage for $8/hour